2.5.1 Evaluation Process and Reforms 2021-22

Internal assessment examination is conducted at college as per the guidelines from MUHS Nashik and NCISM at the end of each term. Question paper pattern for Ist, IInd, IIIrd & IVth year are SAQ, LAQ pattern. Practical exam is also similar to University pattern under different heads covered in practical examination for ex. Long case, Short case, Journal, Viva, Spotting and instruments etc.

Internal assessment examinations are planned after approval by the UG /PG Academic Incharge and respected Principal. Then notice is conveyed to all the departments. Question papers collected from all the departments with subject name, date, no. of question paper copies required. Question papers are cyclostyled by internal exam committee and kept in sealed locker.

Date of examination, syllabus and time table is displayed on the departmental and college notice board. Time table copy, student attendance list and mark list are sent to respective department.

Seating arrangement is done like University examination with strict invigilation under supervision by cross faculty and CCTV.

At departmental level answer books are assessed by the respective staff of respective department. Assessed answer books shown to students by solving their queries. Results are displayed on notice board with due sign of student, HOD and respected Principal sir.

At the end of term examination average marks are calculated. These calculated average marks are filled in the software provided by the MUHS University. After feeding all subject marks, consolidated hard copy are sent to the University with due sign of respective student, HOD and respected principal sir.
