The Healthcare Organization declares that all the communications made or data/document submitted by it corresponds to truth.

2. The mutual obligations in the accreditation process:

2.1 For each accreditation cycle, the NABH designates a contact person who will serve as central contact person from NABH with the Healthcare Organization / Hospital.

2.2 The NABH carries out the accreditation process with the help of qualified assessors.

2.3 For each accreditation process for each Healthcare Organization / Hospital, the NABH nominates an assessment team. The composition of the team is submitted to the Healthcare Organization / Hospital, before it has been definitely appointed. In case in the event if Healthcare Organization / Hospital object to one or more members of the assessment team, it can submit a substantiated objection to the NABH Secretariat prior to the assessment then it would be the sole discretion of NABH Secretariat to consider this objection or not.

2.4 The NABH will not nominate assessors who had been involved in the activities of the Healthcare Organization / Hospital preceding the commencement of the accreditation cycle, as elsewhere expressed in the regulation on assessors, during the implementation of the accreditation process. Further the persons nominated by NABH process or who participated in accreditation process shall strive for Impartiality, Confidentiality and Integrity.

2.5 The Healthcare Organization / Hospital designate a contact person (Accreditation Coordinator) for each accreditation cycle.

2.6 The Healthcare Organization / Hospital provides the NABH with all the information, arranges for the cooperation of all members of staff, offers documents for assessment – within the limits of legal regulations – and gives the NABH access to all the areas in the Healthcare Organization / Hospital, in so far as they are, in all reasonableness, needed for being able to carry out the accreditation process well, in particular to enable the NABH to arrive at a judgment about whether the Healthcare Organization / Hospital meets the set requirements for accreditation purpose. The Healthcare Organization / Hospital shall also provide all the information unasked, which they in all reasonableness understand to be important for the decision-making process of the NABH about the accreditation status.

2.7 The Healthcare Organization / Hospital makes facilities available to the NABH assessment team, in so far they are in all reasonableness needed for being able to carry out the accreditation process well.

2.8 The Healthcare Organization / Hospital makes sure that the NABH, in its judgment, has taken all the facts into account which they are aware of and which, in all reasonableness, they understand to be important for the NABH arriving at a good formation of judgment about granting or continuing the accreditation status. For this purpose, in submitting a self-assessment report, the Healthcare Organization /

Hospital shall also submit a declaration in which they guarantee the accuracy and completeness of the information which the NABH uses in its judgment.

2.9 The Healthcare Organization / Hospital shall be provided with a copy of designated part(s) of the Assessment Report after the NABH assessment is over. Regarding this, the NABH reserves the right and shall have sole discretion to include the contents of this report in research and / or studies while maintaining the anonymity of the hospital.

2.10 If and as long as the Healthcare Organization / Hospital is not granted accreditation status, and if and as long as the accreditation status is not continued, the Healthcare Organization / Hospital is not permitted to communicate or create the impression that they have been granted accreditation status

3. Accreditation status:

3.1 The accreditation status shall be granted for a specific period each time. This accreditation status may be subject to conditions, as elsewhere expressed in the relevant accreditation procedure.

3.2 For each specific period, the Healthcare Organization / Hospital receives a certificate from the NABH which states the accreditation status of the Healthcare Organization / Hospital and declares what it specifically refers to.

3.3 The NABH sets up the accreditation process in such a way that the Healthcare Organization / Hospital, should meet the requirements set by the NABH, can enjoy a continuous accreditation status subject to terms and conditions set for accreditation process from time to time.

3.4 The Healthcare Organization / Hospital has the right to announce the accreditation status in all its communications. In relation to this, it will refrain from suggesting more or other than what is referred to in the declaration on the certificate. The Healthcare Organization / Hospital may use the NABH Accreditation Mark according to the guidelines which are published on the website of the NABH, using the format as provided by the NABH.

3.5 When, during the terms of validity of the accreditation status, facts or circumstances occur or facts or circumstances become known which the Healthcare Organization / Hospital in all reasonableness understands to be important for the judgment of the NABH about the accreditation status or the conditions attached to it, the Healthcare Organization / Hospital will report them to the NABH as quickly as possible and at most within 15 days, in writing.

3.6 The NABH mandates the Healthcare organization/Hospital to submit the Key Performance Indicators (KPI) as per the procedure laid down by the NABH.

3.7 The NABH reserves the right to conduct the surprise assessment of an accredited HCO as per the NABH Policy and Procedure for Surprise Visit to an Accredited Hospital.

3.8 The NABH may decide to defer the accreditation status on the grounds as stated in NABH Policies and Procedures for dealing with adverse and other decisions.

4. Publicity and Confidentiality:

4.1 The Board of the NABH establishes the publication policy in relation to the accreditation status and the accreditation process for Healthcare Organization / Hospital affiliated with the NABH and ensures that notification of this is made on the website of the NABH.

4.2 With due regard to the publication policy, the NABH will observe confidentiality about all the knowledge gained about the Healthcare Organization / Hospital in the context of the accreditation process. This is in relation to all information which is not legally accessible for the public or third parties.

4.3 The NABH shall archive information about the Healthcare Organization / Hospital in a reliable manner which is not accessible for unauthorized persons and should the case arise, ensure that it is adequately destroyed.

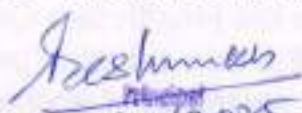

4.4 The parties shall adopt all necessary measures to ensure that all information and/or technical knowledge exchanged regarding the fulfillment or termination of the Agreement, acquired during the performance of activities pertaining to this agreement remain strictly confidential and shall not be communicated to third party.

4.5 The parties shall ensure that their employees, collaborators, agents, managers and other appointees will maintain absolute confidentiality about the information, knowledge, data etc. exchanged between the parties.

4.6 The Healthcare Organization/Hospital shall respect NABH's policy with respect to use of the accreditation mark, certificate, symbol etc. and publicizing accreditation only concerning the accreditation scope in question.

4.7 The commitments to confidentiality under the present Agreement shall remain valid for the parties also after termination, in whatever way this may occur of the present Agreement.

विषय:- शहरी आरोग्य चिकित्सा सेंटरशी करार करणेबाबत. (MOU)

महोदय,

वरील विषयी विनंती करण्यात येते की, छत्रपती शाहू महाराज शिक्षण संस्थेचे आयुर्वेद महाविद्यालय व रुग्णालय, कांचनवाडी, छत्रपती संभाजीनगर येथे सुरु आहे. त्यासाठी भारतीय चिकित्सा पद्धती राष्ट्रीय आयोग, नवी दिल्ली यांच्या नियमानुसार महानगरपालिका कार्यक्षेत्रातील एक रुग्णालयाची रुग्णांसाठी करार केलेला असावा.

तरी आपणास विनंती करण्यात येते की महानगरपालिका कार्यक्षेत्रातील प्राथमिक आरोग्य केंद्र, नक्षत्रवाडी या रुग्णालयाशी करार करण्यास परवानगी देण्यात यावी हि विनंती.
